You're the Word of God the Father from before the world began; ev'ry star and ev'ry planet has been fashioned by your hand. All creation holds together by the power of your voice; let the skies declare your glory, let the land and seas rejoice.

Across the Lands

Chorus

You're the author of creation, you're the Lord of ev'ry man, and your cry of love rings out across the lands!

Yet you left the gaze of angels, came to seek and save the lost; and exchanged the joy of heaven for the anguish of a cross. With a prayer you fed the hungry, with a word you stilled the sea; yet how silently you suffered that the guilty may go free.

With a shout you rose victorious, wresting victory from the grave, and ascended into heaven leading captives in your wake. Now you stand before the Father, interceding for your own, from each tribe and tongue and nation, you are leading sinners home.

* PRAYER OF INVOCATION

* CONFESSION OF FAITH

ALL:

John 1:1-3, 14, 18

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

No one has ever seen God: the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Romans 3:22-23

PASTOR: For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God...

CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN

O most great and holy God, mighty in power and ALL: resplendent in glory. You made us to join with all of creation to give you praise, yet we confess that we fall far short. We have used the gifts that you have given us not to worship you, but to exalt ourselves. We are glory thieves who justly deserve your wrath. Forgive us and raise us from sin, that we may be your faithful people. Teach us, by your Spirit, to live as you intended: overcome with praise to you. In the name of Jesus we pray, Amen.

SILENT CONFESSION OF SIN In these moments, we individually come to God in prayer, silently confessing personal sins so that we may take hold of the forgiveness won for us by Christ, our Redeemer.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON AND PEACE WITH GOD 1 Peter 1:18-21

PASTOR: ...you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

* SONG OF RESPONSE

Ensemble & Congregation

In Christ Alone

In Christ alone my hope is found; he is my light, my strength, my song; this cornerstone, this solid ground, firm through the fiercest drought and storm. What heights of love, what depths of peace, when fears are stilled, when strivings cease! My comforter, my all in all here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone, who took on flesh, fullness of God in helpless babe! This gift of love and righteousness, scorned by the ones he came to save. Till on that cross as Jesus died, the wrath of God was satisfied: for ev'ry sin on him was laid here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the ground his body lay, light of the world by darkness slain; then bursting forth in glorious day. up from the grave he rose again! And as he stands in victory, sin's curse has lost its grip on me; for I am his and he is mine bought with the precious blood of Christ.

No guilt in life, no fear in death this is the pow'r of Christ in me; from life's first cry to final breath, Jesus commands my destiny. No pow'r of hell, no scheme of man, can ever pluck me from his hand; till he returns or calls me home here in the pow'r of Christ I'll stand. PRAYING TOGETHER AS GOD'S PEOPLE

SCRIPTURE

John 2:1-11

Next Week:

Preacher: Rev. Imad Aubrey

On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. ² Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. ³ When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." ⁴ And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." ⁵ His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

⁶ Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. ⁷ Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. ⁸ And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. ⁹ When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom ¹⁰ and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." ¹¹ This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

The Week's Order of WORSHIP for THE LORD'S DAY

March 10, 2019 10:30 A.M.

REFLECTION

"All the miracles of Christ confirmed the validity of the gospel. The skeptics who denied Christ's doctrine were nonetheless forced over and over again to acknowledge the divinity of his miracles, thus exposing the absurdity of their unbelief to the entire world. Jesus' miracles were to the gospel as seals are to a document. Unbelievers could not deny that God was in these miracles, but they could not see Him in the doctrine. As if God would set His seal to an untruth."
